NEW Partners in the BC Heli-ski Industry

(Eagle Pass Heliskiing announces new ownership)

Eagle Pass Heliskiing announces a NEW executive management team and a new kind of heli-ski experience.

The company offers the world's best heli-ski destination experience – snow, terrain, service and quality in a safe and socially responsible manner. Eagle Pass offers boutique small group heliskiing as well as an ultra-luxurious private group heli-skiing option.

The original founder, Andy Freeland (CSGA) is joined on the new team by Matt Pinto (CSGA), Scott Newsome (ACMG) and Michael Wood.

The team has plans to improve and expand existing services. Together, this group comprises more than 70 years of combined ski industry experience, 20 years of management experience and a few million vertical feet of powder.

Eagle Pass Heliskiing operates out of Revelstoke, British Columbia, Canada.
